

About the ABCR Delegates

- Dr David Joske MBBS FRACP FRCPA
 - Chairman of the ABCR Coalition
 - Clinical haematologist in current practice and Head of Haematology, Charles Gairdner Hospital, Perth WA; Director, SCGH Brownes Cancer Support Centre; Associate Professor, University of WA Department of Medicine; Adjunct Professor Curtin University, Haematology Sub-editor of the Internal Medicine Journal of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians
 - Recognised as an innovative and leading cancer clinician in Western Australia, currently running 20 clinical trials and a registry project
 - Founded a cancer support centre and has been recognised for citizenship and service including: twice WA Australian of the Year finalist; WA Consumer Council Certificate in Excellence; John Curtin Medal from Curtin University for vision leadership and community service;
- Dr Anna Williamson PhD
 - Project Manager of the ABCR and member of the management committee
 - General Manager, Research, Advocacy and Patient Care, Leukaemia Foundation (see <http://www.leukaemia.org.au/>)
 - Experienced researcher with CSIRO
 - The Leukaemia Foundation of Australia (LFA) is dedicated to the care and cure of patients with leukaemia, lymphoma, myeloma, aplastic anaemia and related blood disorders. The LFA operates a range of world class support and counselling services, accommodation, disease education, transportation and practical assistance for patients and their families. The LFA is a major force in facilitating collaboration between the scientific, pharmaceutical and medical professions across Australia
- Mr John Stubbs BA Dip Acct
 - Member of the ABCR Management Committee
 - Executive Officer of Cancer Voices Australia, and member of the founding committee (see <http://www.cancervoicesaustralia.org.au/>)
 - 6 year survivor post bone marrow transplant for Chronic Myeloid Leukaemia
 - Member of: ANZ Clinical Trials Advisory Board; NSW Cancer Institute Board; ALLG Clinical Trials Data Monitoring Committee; Therapeutic Goods Committee; ROJIG Working Party; Cancer Australia Steering Committee; NSW Bone Marrow Transplant Network
- Dr Michael Legg PhD FAICD FAIM FACHI MACS(PCP)
 - Project Leader of the ABCR and member of the management committee
 - President of the Health Informatics Society of Australia and Principal of Michael Legg and Associates, a consultancy in Information and Organisational Systems (see <http://www.hisa.org.au/>)
 - Before establishing ML&A he was Director Developments for Pathology with Australia's largest private health care group and before that General Manager of Southern Pathology, winners of the Australian Quality Award for Business Excellence.
 - Has been a leader in health informatics standards development with Standards Australia and HL7 and served on many National Committees including the National Health Information Standards Advisory Committee.

Australian Blood Cancer Registry

PO Box 2126
Windsor QLD 4030

